The rate on Alabama to-day is 22 a 23 discount. Letters from Mobile give the rate on A York at 224 for sight bil's. Considerable sensation was created in the street by the announcement of the failure of the Commercial Bank of N Orleans. The following letter is from a highly intelligent merchant :

Co.respondence of The New-York Tribune. NEW-ORLEANS, Feb. 21, 1843.

The Commercial B: nk did not open her doors this morn ing. The notes were refused by the brokers at better than 35 to 40 per cent discount. They will probably settle to 25 per cent discount. The circulation is not, it it supposed, much over $ :00,000. This event has produced a run on at the remaining specie-paying Banks, but nothing serious is apprehended, as it is confined to small sums held by the lower classes. There has been a considerable drain on all the Banks for some time past, but nothing like a panic. The coin was needed for Mobile, &c. The Canal Bank, which is considered the next weakest after the Commercial, has but a few notes out, and these she has ample specie in her vaults to redeem. Exchange is without much change. On New-York no large amount of 60 day bills could be had at 4 discount. Sterling i. 3 a 31 for leading bills, down to 14 a 2. About $190,000 in specie arrived here yesterday from Tampico, mostly for the purchase of Sterling. Yours, &c.

Specie continues to arrive South. About $175,000 have gone forward to N Orleans within a couple of days, and a considerable amount is going to Mobile. Spanish dollars are very scarce, and wasted for the East Indies at 31 a 4 premium. Mexican 1 prem. The following Stocks were sold at Boston yesterday :-

10 shares Eastern Railroad 941; 20 do Boston & Prov. do 971; 5 do Boston & Maine do 881; 2 do Western do 48; 5 do Atlantic Bank, 86; 10 do City Bank 851; 5 do People's Bank 45; 3 do Tremont Bank 874; 10 do Neponset Bank, 71; 10 do Phenix Bank 60 cts per share. The Lewis County Bank is said to have reduced her circulation to $10,000. The Montgomery County Bank has appointed the Albany City Bank as its agent for the redemption of its circulating

In the Pennsylvania Legislature, the House non-concurre to the Senate's amendments to the bill to pay the interest on the State debt by the issue of new scrip, and the two branches are at issue.

The Beston Courier says, "Money continues abundant, and domestic exchanges are very regular, except on Molle, of which no one can give any quotations. There seems to be a disposition in the Sepate of this State to cripple the banks, by refusing them favors which have been granted in former Legis'atures without much opposition. The chairman of the committee on banks and banking stands almost alone, in favor of allowing certain banks which have applied for that privilege, leave to reduce their capital stock, although he is himself no friend to corporations, and says that he does not own a dollar of bank stock. On Monday the bill to grant this favor to the Ocean Bank of Newburythe bill to grant this favor to the Ocean Bank of Newbury-port was rejected by a decided majority; and yes erday sim-ilar bills, respecting the Merchants' Bank of Newburyport, and the Fail River Bank, met the same late. Exchange on New-York is scarce, in consequence of the large amount of specie held in this city on account of New-York and other southern cities."

The State Government of Illinois has made the same ar rangement with the Bank at Shawnsetown as was made with the State Bank. The Bank is to go into liquidation, the charter to be repealed, the State Bonds cauce.lest and the specie paid out pro rata.

At Savanoah the bank buying rate for Steeling Bills is without change, 4 per cent prem. Domestic Exchanges have experienced a slight improvement. The Banks buy 30 days B.lis at } per cent. off, and to days at 1} per cent. off, and continue to check on Northern cities at par a 1 per ct.

In discussing the Illinois Revenue Rill, the St. Louis Re In discussing the Illinois Revenue Rill, the St. Louis Republican says: "A most spirited debate ensued upon an amendment off-red by Dolmis, of Franklin, suspending until the year 1845 the ten per cent tax levied for the purpose of paying interest upon our State debt, and upon the side and express taith of which law, Macalister & Stebbins loaned the money to the present Fund Commissioner, which could diffuse the July interest of 1841. Those in favor of suspension, or, to use more appropriate and proper language, the repudiation of this debt, were Messis. Keerner, McClernand and Kuykeadall; those opposing it were language, the repudiation of this debt, were Messs. Koer ner, McClernard and Kuykeadall; those opposing it were Messs. Davis of Bood, Logan, Browning, and Arnold.—Three latter named gentlemen denounced the proposition in manea ured terms, and demanstrated beyond controversy that a more glaring and unblushing act of repudiation, or gross injustice toward Macalister & Stebhins, could not well be perpetrated by this Legislature than the adoption of this amendment. The House adjourned without taking the quest on, but I entertain no reasonable doubt but what they will mostly adopt the repudiation amendment.

FANDS'S SARSAPARILLA .- Scarlet Fever disarmed of its Terrors - This dangerous and alarming affection, which has swept from the stage of time so many, both at the innocent age of infancy, and the more majureand vigorous per od of manhood, has at length met its bane and antidote, and its evil effects upon the system are laid waste by its power-ful influence. A little gravdchild of Mr. Wm. Patrick's, wood-corder, was attacked with scarlet fever, which left her in a dreadful state; her little body was covered with patches of scarlet eruption, a large lunsp, something like a bile, and at least two inches in olameter, made its appear ance on one shoulder, which broke and di charged an almost incredible quantity of most offensive matter and cor-ruption; besides this, she discharged a large quantity of corruption from the ears of a very offensive character. Almost despairing of ever stopping the discharge, they made trial of Sands's Sarsaparilla, which effected a cure, the child having taken only one bottle. For the benefit of those suffering from the baneful effects of this horrible disease, Mr. fering from the baneful effects of this horrible disease, Mr. Patrick will be pleased to inform any person as to the cor-rectness of this statement if they will call at his residence

ICT ONLY $1 A YEAR-25 CENTS SINGLE. 401 With the January Number, the regular re-publication of the Edinburgh Quarterly Review has been commenced, and it will henceforth appear, directly after its receipt in this country, in handsome double extra numbers of The New-World newspaper. Of the history and high repute of this great periodical little need be related to the reader who possesses the slightest familiarity with the best authors of the ninetrenth century. It has of late years owed its chief attractions to the brilliant and powerful articles of Lord Brangham and Thomas Babington Macauly.

The number published To-Day is a very brilliant one and among many articles of various interest it costains an excoriating Review of Dickens's "American Notes,"-an admirable history of the Daguerreotype,-and a profound article on that admirable work, Dr. Arnold's Lectures on Modern History. The other articles are very interesting. TERMS-One Dollar a Year. Single Copies, Twenty-

FOR 1845 - Introduced by U. FISH, 187 Broadway, on Wednesday, ist inst. Ever foremost in anticipating the taste and wishes of the fashionable community, the subscriber with pleasure submits, as above the Saring style for taste and wishes of the fashionable community, the subscriber with picasure submits, as above, the Spring style for Gents Hats. The favor which has heretofore attended him in this line, and the care bestowed in the preparation of the Spring Fashion, induces him to believe that this also will meet the approval of his customers and the fashionable public in general. In the manufacture of the spring style of Hats, without arrogance it is asserted, that an important desideratum has been altained, viz: an improved style and quality, at a reduced price. The subscriber invites particular attention to his elegant article of short napped black Nutria Hat, at $4.50, on which he challenges competition with any sold at $5.1 Also, his imitation, prepared with special reterence to the times, at $5.0—an exceedingly gented and economical Hat. Also, the other description of Hats and econom cal Hat. Also, the other descript and econom. Cal Hat. Also, the other description of Malso now in vogue, viz: Cassimere, Moleskin and Brush. Call and see! A single inspection will sumce to convince the most incredulous. O. FISH, Fashionable Hatter,

John Williams, late of the London Missionary Saignty Huntrated with Intertview on don Missionary Society. Illustrated with twenty-five en-gravings and a large map John Williams was the renowned Missionary whom the John Williams was the renowned Missionary whom the cannibals murdered and devoured, with Mr. Harris his companion, at Erromanga. The work now offered for sale is the volumes which he wrote during his visit to England, of which thirty thousand copies have been sold in Britain, and a large number of the translated Narrative in Dutch. That the work may be extended, the publishers have now issued an edition in two parts at thirt-yieven cens and a half each, thus furnishing an octavo volume of five handeed and twenty-five pages, with a large map of the Pacific Ocean, and twenty six engravings on wood for Seventy five entre.

Mr. Williams was one of the most enterprising and extra-Mr. Williams was one of the most enterprising and extra-ordinary men of modern times. Probably no work was ever written which has produced so powerful an effect in aid of Missenary operations as this narrative of his labors, of which it has been said by the English crit-ics, the "Narrative of Missionary Enterprises is invested with all the romantic interest which belongs to the adven-tures of Robinson Crusoe, with the additional power de-rived from its treth. That portion of his work which de-scribes the building of his ship, possesses a fascination alto-ECONOMY IN DRESS—229 Broad-community that I am furnishing every article of Clothing at proportionably moderate prices, for which our Sack Sur-touts have been afforded, and would solicit sail from those rived from its truth. That portion of his work which describes the building of his ship, possesses a fascination altogether peculiar. It stands alove, not only amid the sober records of facts, but even among the narrations of fancy."

When the work was first published in London, so powerful was the influence which it produced that the then King William IV, and the present Queen Victori, publicly acknowledged their gratification, and sent him their thanks and contributions for his Missionary labors. Lad Brougham expressed his enthusiastic approbation. Many of the mobility gave him large donations for the Missionary service. Bishops and naval officers encouraged him to pursue his ardnous course. To crown the whole, the corporation of the city of London presented him five hundred pounds sterling, as a token of their estimation of his exertions and his ling, as a token of their estimation of his exertions and his Narrative.—Christian Intelligencer. mr 2 2tis
